Advances in Understanding and Treating Psychosis

At this year’s BABCP conference, we are delighted to be able to offer a range of workshops, keynotes and symposia relating to the theme of understanding and treating psychosis:

WORKSHOPS

Places on these full-day workshops, which take place on Tuesday 20th July, are limited, please register early at www.babcpconference.com

Workshop 18. Brock Chisholm, University of London, Nadine Keen, South London and Maudsley NHS Trust, and Craig Steel, University of Reading

Working with Trauma and Psychosis within a CBT Framework

Workshop 19. Tony Morrison, University of Manchester

Cognitive Therapy for Distressing Psychotic Experiences: Using a Normalising Cognitive Model to Develop Formulations and select Change Strategies

KEYNOTES

Professor Christine Barrowclough
University of Manchester

Substance use and Psychosis: Linkage, Interventions and Outcomes

Professor Nicholas Tarrier
University of Manchester

Suicide and Psychosis: From Theory to Prevention

SYMPOSIA

Substance use and Psychosis
Convenor: Christine Barrowclough, University of Manchester

Cognitive Therapy for People with Psychosis refusing Antipsychotic Medication: Recent Developments and Future Directions
Convenor: Tony Morrison, University of Manchester

Recovery after Psychosis: The Relational Roots of Emotional Recovery and Relapse Prevention
Convenor: Andrew Gumley, University of Glasgow

Psychological Processes in Psychosis: Testing and Refining Models of Voices and Delusions
Convenor: Robert Dudley, Newcastle University

Caregiving Processes in Early Psychosis
Convenor: Juliana Onwumere, Institute of Psychiatry, King's College London

Metacognition in Psychological Treatments for Psychosis: Perspectives on Theory and Measurement
Convenor: Vyv Huddy, Institute of Psychiatry, KCL

Anxiety Processes in Psychosis
Convenor: Katherine Newman Taylor, University of Southampton & Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust

Mindfulness and Acceptance Approaches with people with Psychosis: New Research
Convenor: Joe Oliver, South London & Maudsley NHS

SKILLS CLASS

Culturally Adapted Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for Psychosis: Using CBT with patients from ethnic minority groups
Peter Phiri and Shanaya Rathod, Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust

Discounted ‘early bird’ rates available before 28th May 2010

For information and to register, the registration form can be downloaded from: http://www.babcpconference.com